Welcome from the President of Lancashire County RFU

To each and every person
here today, welcome.

As the second female
President of Lancashire
Rugby, it is my great honour
and with pride I write this welcome and thank you for your attendance.

Today we look forward to a great contest between our U20s and our guests for the day, Northumberland. Always strong opponents on the field at all levels but great company off it.

Welcome to players, coaches, committee members of Northumberland, especially Noel Mather the Senior Vice-President, I look forward to meeting you today,
and of course the spectators who have travelled the long distance south.

My thanks go to the volunteers of Wigan RUFc for their hard work and their hospitality. Always a great supporter of County representative rugby.

We don't have a game without our match officials, enjoy your day Messrs Arrowsmith, Moore and Power.

Enjoy your day.

Proud Sponsors of Lancashire U20's

Managers Word

We would like to welcome today's opposition Northumberland u20s to Douglas Valley, for what is sure to be a tough encounter. The previous fixtures have always been tough, well fought games of rugby.

Last minute changes in selection can be a distraction but with the squad we have there is always good quality backup.

My thanks to Lancashire for ensuring that this Championship is funded and is viewed as important for player development, sadly the RFU don't give it the priority we in Lancashire think it justly deserves.

As always I would like to thank the coaches for their tireless work in preparing the boys and our physio for making sure they are fit to play.

Thank you to Wigan for hosting today's fixtures which I am sure will be a great game of u20s country championship rugby.

I would like to welcome and thank the referee and his ARs as without them there can't be a game.

this is not soccer."

The image shows the Lancashire County Council logo, which is a shield-shaped emblem. The shield is white with a dark blue border and is set against a background of red and white diagonal stripes. Inside the shield, there is a stylized flower with a purple outer ring, a red inner ring, and a yellow center. The flower is on a brown stem with two green leaves. A yellow banner across the middle of the shield contains the word "LANCASHIRE" in bold, black, sans-serif capital letters.
